

CURRICULUM VITAE

Bruce Duncan, Chief Superintendent

Head of Operations for Northern Constabulary, Headquarters, Inverness

- Joined Northern as a Constable in 1980 and was based at Fort William
- Stayed in Lochaber until 1983 when he was transferred to Cromarty, where he remained for two years
- In 1985 moved into CID in Dingwall where he worked as a DC until 1991
- Was then promoted to the rank of Sergeant and posted to Lochmaddy, a post he was to hold for six years
- In 1997 was promoted to the rank of Inspector and worked as part of the Force's Project Team at Headquarters
- After a year in that role moved into Operational Support, still as an Inspector and remained there until 2000
- Was then promoted to Chief Inspector and took over the role of Area Co-ordinator at Inverness Area Command
- In 2001 was promoted to the rank of Superintendent and remained Area Commander in Inverness
- Then in May 2003 was promoted to Chief Superintendent and handed the challenging role of Head of Operations within the Force's Executive Unit at Headquarters, a position he currently holds